WORK OF SLUM CHILDREN SHOWN

Exhibition Made by the Christ Child Society.

CLOTHING TO BE RETURNED

Stages of Life from Birth Until Maturity, as Depicted by Apparel, is Interesting Feature—Annual Meeting Held, at Which Time Judge William H. De Lacy Talks.

The Christ Child Society, one of the foremost religious organizations for charity in the country, gave an exhibition at Raucher's yesterday afternoon that the people of this city might see what has been done by the society in the National Capital in the last year.

The exhibition was in the main banquet hall, and was followed by the annual meeting of the society at which Rev. Dr. William J. Kerby presided and Judge William H. De Lacy, of the Juvenile Court, made an address. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Makers Not Five Years Old.

Clothing of every description made by children of the slums under direction of the society's teachers was exhibited on tables ranged against the four walls of the banquet hall. Some garments were made by children not more than five years old. The clothing will be given to the children who made them. And, according to officers, many of them are badly in need of apparel.

One table contained an outfit of clothing representing every stage in the life of a child, from the day of birth until the day of reaching maturity. There were other unique exhibits, including a series of pictures depicting the religious instruction of children by the society.

The exhibit included specimens of work of the children of the eight centers known as the society headquarters and the Georgetown, Italian settlement, Holy Comforter, St. Vincent de Paul, St. Dominic, St. Augustine, and Glen Echo centers. Following is a list of officers:

ECHO OF THE CIVIL WAR.

Human Bones Uncarried on the Grounds of Exposition.

A discovery of importance to historians was made yesterday by workmen engaged in excavating for the foundations of one of the buildings to be used during the coming National Midsummer Exposition, of Washington, on the grounds of what was formerly Luna Park.

At a depth of several feet, a workman, uncovered what was first thought to be a section of old pipe, but which, after closer inspection, developed to be a rusty barrel of an old rifle. Several other weapons and a number of brass buttons were also discovered.

The theory that this might be a part of the old burial ground, where the Union dead, who fell in the bloody skirmishes in the vicinity of Four Mile Run, was not given credit last night, by a member of the G. A. R. He says all bodies were disinterred and taken to Arlington Cemetery.

FATHER FINNERTY APPOINTED.

Rev. Lawrence J. Finnerty, O. P., of St. Dominic's Church, has been appointed successor to Rev. Matthew L. Heagan, O. P., recently elected provincial of the Dominican Order in this country, and has already assumed his new duties.

Father Finnerty entered the Dominican Order at St. Rose's Convent, Springfield, Ky., and later studied at St. Joseph's College, Somerset, Ohio. His final theological course was taken at the College of the Immaculate Conception, at Catholic University, where he was ordained in 1906. In August, 1907, he was assigned to parish duty at St. Dominic's Church.

The membership of the Holy Name Society during the two and one-half years in which he was spiritual director, increased its enrollment from 15 to 600 men. He also reorganized the local branch of the Third Order of St. Dominic. He was actively engaged in charitable work in the hospital at Soldiers' Home. Father Finnerty's duties as superior of the provincial will include his accompanying that official on his visits to the various parishes and to Rome this summer.

Limited Supply

Desirability of Location and Individuality

Form the Foundation of Value of This Home

Columbia Heights

Price, $4,850

Holmead Avenue, Just North of Otis Street Northwest

(Just Five Squares North of Park Road)

The demand for this character of home is forever increasing, due mainly to the extremely limited supply. The value of a home so situated is materially increased, due to the proximity of the property to the 14th st. car line and the homes of a much higher value.

By reason of these facts, and also by the fact that the supply is limited, because ground cannot be purchased now in that territory at a price which permits their production, such property, when securable, becomes a HIGH STANDARD OF VALUE, and we are perfectly safe in saying that in our opinion such property can be resold at a PROFIT.

Many months ago we realized this fact and advised the immediate purchase of a complete front-range of ground on Holmead avenue, just north of Otis st. nw.

We knew this to be the only available ground west of 13th st. that could be purchased at a price that would permit the building and offering of a home at a price less than $5,000.

Capital was quick to grasp the situation, and the result is that we are now in a position to offer you a limited number of such homes.

The average property in this territory that is equal in finish and arrangement to this home has heretofore been offered to the public in some cases at $5,250, but in most cases above $5,500.

We want you to save that difference.

A limited number of these homes will be sold on our terms that make home-buying a pleasure. $500 cash and the balance $35.00 a month, which amount includes both interest and principal, the greater portion of which comes back to you each month as money saved.

Great care has been taken with the arrangement and finish of this home, and it appeals forcibly to those who love home comforts and conveniences.

TO INSPECT:

Take any 14th st. car to corner of 14th and Otis sts., and walk one-half square east to Holmead ave. The ground lying between Holmead ave. and 14th st. at this point has been purchased for the erection of homes at a much higher valuation. This, too, materially adds to the value of the home we are offering you on Holmead ave. Sample home—3523 Holmead ave. nw.

SWINDLER GETS HER MONEY.

Woman Paid $25 for Atlantic City Boarding House.

Mrs. Josephine Coagie, of 1139 Third street northwest, is looking for a boarding and lodging house in Atlantic City, on a half interest in which she paid a smooth-talking stranger $25 on account. Now she is seeking the aid of the police.

When she read an advertisement offering a half interest in a good-paying proposition she wrote a reply, inviting the advertiser to call.

A well-dressed and business-looking stranger called and offered to sell a half interest for a ridiculously small sum. Mrs. Coagie paid him $25, with the understanding that he was to pay her way to Atlantic City to inspect the property. She has not seen the man since.

She describes him as a light-skinned negro, of forty years, five feet five inches in height, 150 pounds, gray eyes, sandy brown hair and mustache. He was dressed in a neat checked suit, and wore a black derby hat.
